ESTIMATED EXPENSES

Generally, students should plan for USD 600-1200 monthly for living expense, depends on your consumption capacity:

- Non-refundable service charge (ID card, insurance and logistical costs of induction processes)
- Accommodation & Utilities
- Food
- Telephone
- Transport
- Medical costs
- Visa/Residence Permit costs
- Etc.

HEALTH AND INSURANCE

Public hospitals and insurance	The medical insurance provided by XJTLU covers treatment in public hospitals. Public hospitals in Suzhou are generally clean and reliable. Due to language barrier and different registration procedures in hospitals, students are advised to take a Chinese speaker with them when they go. If required Global Team at XJTLU can arrange a staff member or a student volunteer to assist international students. Student need to keep all the receipts/invoices and paperwork related to the hospital visit in order to claim back the expenses, either against their own insurance or the one provided by XJTLU.
Private clinics	Private clinics are more foreigner-friendly. Doctors are generally either international or have a high standard of English. Treatment is entirely western medicine based. Private clinics are significantly more expensive than public hospitals. The insurance provided by XJTLU does not cover private clinics.
Dentists services	There is a dental clinic close to XJTLU campus. All major hospitals provide dentist services. The insurance provided by XJTLU does not cover dental treatments.
Pharmacy	There are several pharmacies near XJTLU campus, both within 15 minutes' walk from campus. The pharmacies provide a range of Western and Chinese medicines. Staff don't speak English, so students should have the name of the medicine written in Chinese, or take a Chinese friend when they go. Students should always check the chemical name on the information sheet inside the box. Certain medicines may only be available in major hospitals or private clinics.
